Alton

This small village maintains its historic charm and offers plenty to see and eat. Alton features a national award-winning arts centre in a restored 1880s stone mill. Visitors can discover 5 different galleries and purchase art, fine crafts and jewellery from artisans in working studios. Enjoy the Mill's history and waterside setting.

Belfountain

Belfountain is a picturesque Hamlet on the Forks of the Credit Road. The Road itself is scenic and fun to drive but once arriving in Belfountain you'll discover a beautiful conservation area, eateries and shops.

Erin

Discover the Charm of the Village of Erin. Founded in the early 1800's, the Village of Erin is full of vestiges of traditional rural, small town life in southern Ontario. Take a stroll along the Main Street, where you'll meet friendly shopkeepers and discover an eclectic mix of merchandise.

Possibility grows here.
